

Randolph Public Schools

Volume 1 | Issue 1

www.randolph.k12.ma.us

Published Monthly

First Edition: January 13, 2017

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

District News

Mr. Adam Shekleton
Musical Director
Randolph High School

Adam Shekleton is from Killingly, CT. He completed his undergraduate degree at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, and earned a graduate degree from the Hart School of Music at the University of Hartford. He is the Musical Director at Randolph High School. Aside from his dedication to furthering the arts throughout the Randolph community, he has the ability to musically stretch our students to achieve levels that they would not deem possible. He has developed a music program that has achieved awards throughout the state, and has grown the instrumental music program which has become a showcase for Randolph Public Schools. We are very proud to have Mr. Adam Shekleton as part of the arts program at Randolph High School. Thank you, Mr. Shekleton, for your dedication and service!

Ms. Maureen Smith
Title I Reading Specialist
Donovan Elementary School

Maureen Smith is from Whitman, MA. She received a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education and Psychology from Framingham State College, a Master's Degree in Early Childhood Education from Bridgewater State College, and a C.A.G.S. in Reading from American International College. Ms. Smith began her career at the Donovan Elementary School 20 years ago as a second grade teacher and has been a Title I Reading Specialist for the last five years. In her free time she enjoys traveling, reading, binge watching reality TV shows and spending time with her two teenage daughters. We are grateful for Ms. Smith's long-standing commitment and dedicated service to the students of the Donovan Elementary School. Thank you, Ms. Smith!